

Forest honey

Miel de bosque

This honey is very characteristic for its dark color, coming from oak and oak honeydew, it is the last honey that is collected from the summer before the entrance of autumn. It is a honey as scarce as appreciated for its intense flavor and its content in nutrients, iron and antioxidants.

- Available in: 950 grams, 450 grams, 250 grams

