

Pomegranate nectar

100% squeezed

Nectar made with juice squeezed from Spanish Granada. All the flavor and beneficial properties of the pomegranate, smoother and fresher on the palate. Ideal for the whole family.

Pomegranate is a fruit low in calorie content given that its major ingredients are water and sugars, mainly glucose and fructose. It is a fruit rich in vitamins, including Vitamin C, E, B1, K and beta-carotene.

Pomegranate is also an important source of iron, calcium, zinc and particularly potassium. It also has a high concentration of antioxidant polyphenols, compounds that are responsible for many of its beneficial properties.

- High antioxidant capacity
- Potential ingredient for the treatment of diabetes, as well as cardio protector properties
- Draining and diuretic effects: Thanks to its high potassium and low sodium content
